■ FREE GIFT — WEEKLY OPERATING MAP ■

Stop drowning in tools.

Run your week in 30 minutes.

One Sunday block. One Wednesday reset. That's the whole map. No SaaS, no notion stack, no daily ritual fatigue — just two appointments with yourself that move every revenue lever forward.

Sunday Block — 20 minutes

Run these five passes in order. Set a 4-minute timer per pass; the constraint forces you to think in checkpoints, not infinite to-dos.

① Money pass	Look at last week's revenue, refunds, and pipeline. Write the one number you want to move this week.
② Offer pass	Pick the offer that earns the number. Pin it as today's top.
③ Channel pass	Choose ONE channel where your buyer already hangs out.
④ Activation pass	Draft three messages, three angles, three CTAs.
⑤ Calendar pass	Block 90 minutes on Mon/Tue/Thu to ship them.

Wednesday Reset — 10 minutes

Two questions, written out: What is winning? Cut budget, attention, and emotion away from anything not on that list. What is stuck? Either kill it or escalate it (ask, pay, or delegate). Stuckness is the only enemy.

Two-rule test for adding anything new

Before you adopt a new tool, ritual, or channel, it must (1) replace something you already do, and (2) survive 14 days without you defending it. If it fails either, delete it without ceremony.

Next step — claim the full system

Weekly Operating Map is the cadence. The Masterclass tier is the system — offers, channels, scripts, and automation that fill the calendar you just built.
